CHAUTAUQUA CONNECTION

"The Chautauqua Connection," an exhibit of eyewitness accounts of Pacific Grove's Chautauqua lectures and historic costumes is on display at Ketchum's Barn through November. Stop in at Ketchum's Barn any Saturday between 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m.

Ann Downs, Exhibit Coordinator, would like volunteers to assist with future exhibits. If you have ideas or would like to spend some time doing research or otherwise helping with a future exhibit, please call Ann at 375-3650.

1982 HERITAGE DESIGN AWARD PRESENTED

The Heritage Society of Pacific Grove has presented the 1982 Heritage Design Award to Peninsula Heritage Properties for the work accomplished on the Centrella Hotel. The award is presented annually in recognition of excellence in realizing and contributing to the historic character of Pacific Grove.

1983 PRESERVATION DAY PLANNED

Preparations are underway for "Preservation Day," in recognition of the 14 homes in Pacific Grove which will be 100 years old in 1983. We need volunteers to research specific homes, as well as the general local events of that period. If you would like to become involved in this project, please contact David Mills or Adam Weiland. (Phone numbers listed on reverse side.) A date has not yet been set for this event.

GENERAL MEETING WELL ATTENDED

A General Meeting was held on the afternoon of September 12th at Ketchum's Barn. An excellent turnout demonstrated the general membership's interest in the goals and objectives of the Heritage Society of Pacific Grove.

Committee Chairs described projects in progress, including the High Tea planned for later this month (details on reverse side), and heard ideas and responses from the floor and took the names of volunteers. If you were unable to attend and would like to volunteer some of your time, call the appropriate Board member or the Heritage Society (372-2898).

MAILING LIST UPDATE

The Heritage Society's mailing list has been set up on a computer for ease in adding, editing and deleting names. Name and address changes should be reported to Membership Chairperson Muriel Pyburn (375-4377).

Names of those persons who had not paid their annual dues were recently eliminated from the mailing list. Newsletters and announcements of Heritage Society events are now being mailed only to paid members and to appropriate clubs and publications.

These changes have been instituted to keep printing and mailing costs down, and to keep information about membership up to date.
