HERITAGE SOCIETY ACTIVITIES

In addition to Christmas party preparations & progress on the upcoming "Old Fashioned Christmas" exhibit, regular Heritage Society activities are in progress and include: taping oral interviews with Pacific Grove residents; presentation of historic date plaques; monitoring of building projects within the City; cataloging of the photograph collection; planning for proposed Barn exhibits for the future.

DONOR PLAQUE NEARS COMPLETION

Ed Bredthauer reports that the Donor Plaque will be ready for viewing by the end of December at the latest.

VICTORIAN CHRISTMAS EXHIBIT

The "Old Fashioned Christmas" exhibit at Ketchum's Barn will be ready for public viewing as of December 4, 1982. The exhibit is open on Saturdays from 1:00 until 4:00 p.m. The Christmas decorations include holly, a tree, an old school bench, dolls dressed in period clothing, and a new magnetic board with Victorian architectural facades so that children can compose "structures." In addition, the exhibit includes a replica of a tent cottage (scale: 1"=1'). Other replicas will appear early next year. This exhibit will please both children and adults, so bring the whole family and stop by Ketchum's Barn, at Laurel and 17th, during the Christmas season.
